

The Road and Bridge Department received a total of 10 calls from residents after the sign installation and posting of public notice with questions during the public comment period. No questions are left unresolved and no public meeting was requested.