Re: Claim for damages: Motor Vehicle Property Claim
Claimant: Juan Alberto Alamo Gomez
County Claim#: C260003
Amount: $3,563.00
Date of Incident: February 13, 2026

Gentlemen:

This incident involves our Deputy De'Andre Fillmore, who on Friday, February 13, 2026, struck the rear of Wisconsin resident Juan Alamo Gomez's 2008 Volkswagen Jetta vehicle while traveling southbound on I-45 in approximately the 1600 block. Fillmore was driving a County Explorer. After being struck, the Jetta was pushed another 100 yards into a concrete barrier damaging the Jetta's right corner as well. The vehicle was towed to Marty's and determined to be a total loss.

We reviewed the police report, the internal safety memorandum, photos, videos and materials from the Plaintiff who is represented by Domingo Garcia. We also inspected the vehicle. Fillmore admitted to me he was distracted and this is a case of clear liability.

The Plaintiff demanded $5500 for the value of the vehicle and replacement of the items inside the vehicle that included tools for his job, and bedding as he claimed the Jetta was his "home". We utilized CARFAX and researched the lost items' value, and negotiated a settlement of $3,563, subject to your approval.

We are recommending the Commissioners' Court approve this settlement of Mr. Alamo Gomez's claim. He has signed a release for all property claims, subject to your approval.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at 409-795-2032.

Very truly yours,
